Editorial

FIRST THINGS is America's premier journal of religion and public life. It begins with the premise that to understand American society—and where it is headed—it is necessary to understand its religious life and values. FIRST THINGS' broad coverage of religious and cultural issues encompasses politics, economics, ethics, education, science, and literature and the arts. Though concerned with issues of great seriousness,

FIRST THINGS is lively, readable, and entertaining. FIRST THINGS is for Catholics, Protestants, Jews, Muslims, and more. We make a point of being ecumenical and interreligious, engaging all the questions pertinent to “religion, culture, and public life.”

History

The founding editor in chief of FIRST THINGS was Richard John Neuhaus, theologian, celebrated public intellectual, and author of many books, including the groundbreaking The Naked Public Square. Father Neuhaus died in January 2009 leaving a legacy of reinvigorated religious debate in our public life.

Features

- A readership of the most influential opinion leaders in America.
- The largest subscriber base of any ecumenical journal of ideas in the country.
- An unprecedented journal that puts its readers in the center of the critical debates about the role of religion in America.
- The most authoritative editors, editorial board, and contributors of any magazine concerned with religion and its public impact.
- Serious, involved readership interested in a broad spectrum of books, magazines, and journals.
- Puts your products before a unique audience of widely educated and active readers.
